Who We Are

Since 1937, Georgia Industries for the Blind (GIB) has employed motivated and talented Georgians who are blind or low-vision, providing meaningful jobs and opportunities that support self-sufficiency and independence.

When you purchase our products, you support the dedicated individuals who work with us, continuing a strong legacy of excellence in manufacturing and sourcing a diverse range of products. All employees earn competitive wages and enjoy full benefits, along with opportunities for career advancement.

GIB is an ISO 9001:2008 certified company with a nationally recognized safety program. We manufacture a variety of products, including file folders, safety vests, customized screen printing, sewing projects, individually wrapped 3-ply face masks, and kitting services for corporations.

We guarantee 100% satisfaction with our products and services. Our commitment is to provide high-quality products, coupled with prompt, courteous, and attentive customer service.

History of the Georgia Industries for the Blind

Georgia Industries for the Blind (GIB) was established in 1937 as the “Georgia Factory for the Blind” following the passage of House Bill 114. In 1982, the state legislature officially changed the name to Georgia Industries for the Blind (GIB).

GIB’s first plant opened in 1949 in Bainbridge, Georgia, followed by a second plant in Griffin, Georgia, in 1953. More than 70 years later, both plants continue to serve their communities and provide job opportunities for individuals who are blind across the state.

In 2010, GIB opened its first service site at Robins Air Force Base in Warner Robins, Georgia, and in 2011, a second service site opened in Pendergrass, Georgia. Currently, GIB operates two manufacturing site – Bainbridge and Griffin – and two service sites – Bainbridge and Warner Robins.
